Fee

The fee for the three-week programme is 589 Euro. It covers 80 hours of classes, including 50 hours of the core courses and 26 hours of workshops and activities. The fee also covers campus accommodation and excursion to Kraków (accommodation on campus and visits to two museums: Rynek Underground and "Wieliczka" Salt Mine). It does not cover costs of insurance, fares and food.

Programme extensions

For those interested in a richer range of activities at additional cost, we have prepared exciting additional offers:

Central European Capitals

A trip to central European capitals – three-day visiting Berlin, Prague, Vienna and Bratislava – extra cost approx. 250 Euro. The ultimate price depends on the number of participants.

Creative Week in Trier and Luxembourg

It is an additional programme (paid extra 350 EUR) prepared together with our partners, Moving.Lab (moving-lab.eu) to give the Summer School students even more opportunity to exercise English and visit Luxembourg and Western Germany. The bus trip (included in the price) in the western direction from Opole will take you to the border between Germany and Luxembourg. In the stunning Mosel valley area, we will spend a week with our partner University of Applied Sciences learning about European identity and lifestyle using experimental design methods in the shades of the ancient Roman Porta Nigra.

The creative workshop will be followed by the visits to Karl Marx museum as the city of Trier is his hometown and it celebrates the 200th anniversary of the philosopher's birth. The week will be concluded with a field trip to a re-developed Belval industrial zone, where the campus of the University of Luxembourg is located.
