

Courses offered in the framework of the Summer University 2019 on the issues of European History, Politics, Economics and Management

1. Prof. Kazimierz Ożóg, Faculty of Art

Introduction to the understanding of art (mostly architecture) of Old Europe (within the historical context). Synthetic perception of meaning and heritage of antiquity. Medieval art in the context of religiosity and modernity in the political and religious contexts.

2. Błażej Choroś, PhD, Faculty of Social Sciences, Institute of Political Science:

Introduction to the European Union (history of European integration, EU and its institutions). Another option: Introduction to European Politics devoted to the most pressing political issues faced by the European countries, e.g. populism, attitude towards the prospective European integration, migrations, external threats.

3. Prof. Krzysztof Skowroński, Faculty of Social Sciences, Institute of Philosophy

European Values, Multiculturalism: philosophical problems, The concept of Good Life

4. Borys Cymbrowski, PhD, Faculty of Social Sciences, Institute of Sociology

Communism and Post-Communism in Europe: city, art, social structure, everyday life, ethnic policies, science and technologies, texts of dissidents, situation of women.

5. Prof. Robert Geisler, Faculty of Social Sciences, Institute of Sociology

European Societies - social processes in Europe, such as migrations, demographic processes, cultural changes and conflicts.

European entrepreneurship - between theory and practice

Organizational cultures in the European economy

6. Barbara Curyło, PhD, Faculty of Social Sciences, Institute of Political Science:

Decision-making processes in EUR within the context of disintegration, crises, Brexit, etc. Western Enlargement of European Union as a political and cultural clash

7. Anna Czerner, PhD in Sociology, Central Museum of Prisoners-of-War:

Violence and Reconciliation: European History in Sociocultural Perspective (the 20th-21st centuries) with workshops held at the Museum of Prisoners-of-War in Łambinowice.

8. Joanna Ryszka, PhD, Faculty of Law and Administration:

EU law: internal market and enforcement of social rights in its framework (covering the issues of Social Europe or European Pillar of Social Rights).

9. Prof. Piotr Stec, Faculty of Law and Administration

European Heritage Law or European intellectual property

10. Prof. hab. Joanna Czaplńska, Faculty of Philology

Literature of Central Europe

11. Prof. Anna Pietryga, Faculty of Social sciences, Institute of Philosophy

Religions in contemporary Europe

12. Michał Wanke, PhD

Intercultural Skills for Creative Industries (based on European project with Moving.Lab association)