BACKGROUND

Airlangga Mobility 2019: Management and Leadership Development Forum in Taiwan was initiated with the aim of building a platform for students across Asia, from various disciplines and backgrounds, to engage in meaningful academic, cultural and experiential exchange. Since the program was officiated in 2018, the theme of Airlangga Mobility has been ‘Management and Leadership Development Forum’ referencing the bold thinkers and action-takers we hope to inspire through the Forum.

Through the program, participants will embark on a learning journey in a new country. They will engage with issues pertinent to leadership and management skills, and be given opportunities to meet with and speak to experts studying and dealing with such issues. At the same time, with international exchange being a major part of Airlangga Mobility’s programme structure, we hope to offer our participants a unique space: one where they can get to know, and learn from one another. Out of this immersive experience, we hope to equip participants with tools to make sense of, and reflect on their learning journeys. Additionally, Airlangga Mobility 2019: Management and Leadership Development Forum seeks to provide participants with an opportunity to exercise their creativity, and present unique initiatives and products to combat the problems explored during the program.

THEME

The theme for Airlangga Mobility 2019 is,
“Management and Leadership Development Forum”

OBJECTIVES

Airlangga Mobility 2019 aims to be a springboard for ideas to come to fruition while building a platform for students across Asia, from various disciplines and backgrounds, to engage in meaningful academic, cultural and experiential exchange. In addition to generating tangible ideas during the course of the program, participants are encouraged to develop the managerial and leadership skills. The program hence connects young change-makers from both universities that have the capacity to materialize the change. This program thus drives the leaders of tomorrow beyond passive receivers of change into dynamic individuals capable of assessing, adapting to and enacting leadership dynamics in Asia. In addition, participants are also encouraged to participate in cross cultural environment. Therefore, gaining global networking and greater collaboration while also strengthening the position of UNAIR as a world class university.

TARGET AUDIENCE

Maximum 5 (five) students from partner university, who are interested in cross-cultural exchange and come from any discipline, are invited to attend this program. During this program, participants will get a chance to have interaction with UNAIR’s students to have discussion regarding the theme.
